

GARY GREEN

Former NHL coach and current TV commentator Gary Green has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer team!

After successfully coaching the junior Peterborough Petes and the AHL Hershey Bears, Gary Green became the youngest coach in NHL history when he was hired to coach the Washington Capitals in 1979-80 at the age of 26. Following his coaching career, Gary established a reputation as an outstanding hockey commentator, and his resume includes the USA Network, TSN, Fox, the NHL Network and NHL Radio.
