

GEORGES LARAQUE

One of the most feared forwards in NHL history, Georges Laraque has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

During twelve NHL seasons, Georges Laraque established himself as a fierce competitor, contributing significantly to the Edmonton Oilers, Phoenix Coyotes, Pittsburgh Penguins and Montreal Canadiens. Although he could skate and score, Georges was principally known as an enforcer, selected by Sports Illustrated as 'number one enforcer' in 2008 and as 'Best Fighter' by The Hockey News' in 2003. Yet, this gentle giant is equally known for his generosity, significantly assisting the Grace Children's Hospital in Haiti (his parents' homeland) after the devastating 2010 earthquake in that country. His well-regarded appearance on 'Battle of the Blades' also allowed him to contribute more financially to the re-building of Haiti. In addition, Georges contributes his celebrity to environmental causes, animal rights causes and now, the vision of conquering cancer in our lifetime.
