

GILLIAN APPS

Winner of two Olympic gold medals with Team Canada, Gillian Apps has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

A dominating forward, hockey courses through the veins of Gillian Apps. Her father, Syl Apps Jr., was an NHL star with the New York Rangers, Pittsburgh Penguins and the L.A. Kings. Her grandfather, Syl, had a Hall of Fame career with the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1940s. But Gillian carries her own legacy. She was an integral part of Canada's gold medal-winning performances at the Winter Olympics in 2006 (7 goals and 7 assists) and 2010 (3 goals and 4 assists). In addition, Gillian was a member of the Canadian National Team's gold medal wins at the World Championships in 2004 and 2007 and the silver medal wins in 2005, 2008 and 2009. While attending Dartmouth College, Gillian was the ECAC's player of the year in 2007.
