

JAMES DUTHIE

James Duthie, the host of 'The NHL on TSN' has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

After stints in Ottawa and Vancouver, James Duthie joined TSN and quickly became a favourite of viewers for his knowledge and quick wit. After co-hosting 'SportsCentre,' Duthie was named host of the award-winning 'NHL on TSN.' A three-time Gemini Award nominee in the category 'Best Host or Interviewer in a Sports Program,' James was also nominated for hosting TSN's six-hour 'Canada's Game: Hockey Lives Here.' In 2009, he received the Gemini Award for Best Sportsdcaster/Anchor for his work on that year's 10-hour 'TradeCentre.' But in addition to his outstanding work on TSN, James also shone as co-host of CTV's 'Olympic Daytime' and as host of Team Canada

Men's Hockey in Vancouver in 2010. His column on TSN.ca (The Good, The Bad, The Duthie) is a must-read and in 2010, he had two books published: 'They Call Me Killer' with Brian Kilrea and the sensational 'The Day I (Almost) Killed Two Gretzkys.'
