

JAYNA HEFFORD

Olympic gold medalist Jayna Hefford has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

The Team Canada hockey veteran has earned one silver medal (1998) and three gold medals (2002, 2006 and 2010) while competing for her country at the Olympic Winter Games. Few will forget her game-winning goal over the United States in Salt Lake City in 2002, earning gold for Canada. Jayna has also been part of six gold medal championships for Team Canada at the World Championships. Currently, Jayna is captain of Brampton's entry in the Canadian Women's Hockey League, where she has earned the league's MVP award in 2008 and was the league's top scorer in 2009.
