

LORI DUPUIS

Olympic hockey star Lori Dupuis has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

Lori discovered her love of hockey while growing up in Cornwall, but took her skills to a new level when she joined the Varsity Lady Blues at the University of Toronto in 1991. There, Lori was a perennial All-Star, finishing second in league scoring in 1994-95 and a finalist for the university's Female Athlete of the Year. As a member of Team Canada, Lori helped her team win the World Championship in 1997, 1999 and 2000, but even more importantly, she earned an Olympic silver medal at the Winter Games in Nagano in 1998 and a gold medal in Salt Lake City in 2002.
