

MICHAEL BURGESS

Musical theatre star Michael Burgess has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

Regina-born Michael Burgess was born with a gift – a magnificent singing voice. After attending St. Michael's Choir School in Toronto, Burgess embarked on a career that saw him magnificently star in productions of Shakespeare, Stephen Sondheim, Eugene O'Neill and others, although he is best-remembered for his role as Jean Valjean in the Toronto production of 'Les Miserables.' Along the way, he recorded two albums: 'A Place In The Sun' and the Christmas release 'Angels in the Snow.' Michael has performed for heads of state, royalty and hundreds of enthusiastic audiences, thrilling all with his wonderful musical interpretations.
