

MIKE MURPHY

Former NHL player and coach Mike Murphy has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

Mike Murphy made his NHL debut with St. Louis in 1971-72, and through his 831-game career, picked up 231 goals and 556 points playing with the Blues, New York Rangers and Los Angeles Kings. After retiring from hockey with Los Angeles, where he had captained the Kings, Mike served as an assistant, graduating to head coach during the 1986-87 season. Mike was hired as head coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1996-97, serving in that capacity for two seasons. Today, Mike Murphy serves as the NHL's Vice President of Hockey Operations.
