

RON ELLIS

Maple Leafs' Stanley Cup champion Ron Ellis has joined the Road Hockey To Conquer Cancer team!

A lifelong Maple Leaf, Ron Ellis spent fifteen seasons wearing the blue and white, scoring 332 goals and 640 points in more than 1,000 games. The hard-working winger was honoured to be asked by Ace Bailey to wear his retired number 6, a number that was again retired by Toronto at the conclusion of Ron's career. In 1972, Ron was selected to be a member of Team Canada in the Summit Series against the Soviet Union, and his line (with Paul Henderson and Bobby Clarke) played a pivotal role in Canada's eventual victory.
